

After four long months, hockey is back. The NHL Returns to Play with 12 Eastern Conference teams in Toronto and 12 Western Conference teams in Edmonton. Welcome to the 2020 Postseason, the 2019-20 MeiGray Game-Worn Jersey Authentication Program, and the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

Six of MGG's seven Program Teams are among the 24 clubs vying for the Stanley Cup. The Boston Bruins, the 2020 Presidents' Trophy winners, Washington Capitals, and Philadelphia Flyers are among the four Eastern Conference playoff qualifiers in Toronto who will play a three-game round-robin series (with Tampa Bay) to determine the Top 4 Seeds in the Eastern Conference Playoffs. The Columbus Blue Jackets will meet Toronto in a best-of-five Eastern Conference qualifier.

In the Western Conference, the Edmonton Oilers will face Chicago and the Nashville Predators will meet Arizona in the best-of-five qualifying round.

Have you pre-ordered your Postseason Game-Worn Jersey yet? Don't wait. If you pre-order a jersey before the end of that team's best-of-five qualifier or round-robin games, and your team reaches the 2020 Stanley Cup Final, you will receive a $100 credit towards a 2020 Stanley Cup Final game-worn jersey!

A 25% deposit will hold any jersey until it arrives at MGG. Balances WILL BE AUTOMATICALLY PROCESSED with the same credit card used for the deposit and jerseys will be shipped when they arrive unless the collector specifically notifies MGG to call or e-mail before processing. And in those cases, payment must be made within 10 days of notification.

All Postseason jerseys will be washed by the team before being shipped to MGG. Due to the pandemic, MGG will re-wash the sets of jerseys received from the club before shipping to collectors.

Postseason Pre-Orders are NON-REFUNDABLE once the team completes its season. If the season is stopped for safety reasons before your team completes its season, a pre-order may be cancelled.

Postseason Pre-Orders are NON-REFUNDABLE for a team that completes its season once the player plays in at least one (1) game in the jersey. If the player does not play at least one game in the jersey, a pre-order may be cancelled and a full refund will be given.

Postseason jerseys are scheduled to be worn through the Conference Finals, but a team's Postseason jersey schedule is subject to adjustment for this Postseason. For the Stanley Cup Final, new jerseys with the Stanley Cup Final patches are prepared.

Refunds will not be given on canceled pre-orders, or orders in which jersey schedules are adjusted. You may not change from one pre-ordered jersey to another unless the new pre-ordered jersey is of greater value.

EXCEPTION: Full refunds will be given on pre-orders that cannot be fulfilled by the team or MGG due to non-delivery of the jersey, unavailability of the jersey due to circumstances out of the team or MGG's control, if a player does not play in the jersey, if the jersey is retained by the club for historical purposes, or if the jersey cannot be made available due to NHL game circumstances beyond our reasonable control.
