

Fellow Collector:

The Seattle Kraken-MeiGray Game-Worn Program kicked off last night, when the Kraken wore four Inaugural Game Sets of jerseys in a thrilling 4-3 loss to the Golden Knights in Vegas.

MeiGray is continuing to make Program Request Calls for Pre-Orders, so thanks to all of you for your patience as we work through the nearly 350 requests. A few updates:

1. Because of NHL Covid Protocols and the uncertain availability of players until just before game time, the Kraken created four sets of 27 jerseys for last night's Inaugural Game. The warmup set and the third period set remain property of the team. The Starting Six players for the first game in Kraken History, jerseys worn during the first period, will be separated from the remaining 21 jerseys that will go up for auction later this week at meigrayauctions.com. Those six players will have their second period jerseys in auction.

2. The remainder of the second-period set, and the game-issued jerseys from the second-period set, are available for retail sale. This set includes the second-period jersey worn by Ryan Donato, who scored the first goal in Seattle Kraken History. That jersey is available for $10,000.

3. Pre-order calls will continue to be made, and once they are complete we will distribute a list of remaining jerseys for pre-order ... and then next week if any jerseys remain we will post them for sale at MeiGray.com

Stay tuned for information on Warmup Pucks from the Kraken's first NHL games, and an update on MGG's plans for the Inaugural Game in Seattle on October 23 vs. Vancouver.

Thanks,

Barry Meisel,
